Undergraduate Thesis Work

2021 Shuvro: A Context Sensitive Bengali Spell Checker to Combat Hilarious Language Distortion over Social Media
Description: A writing tool for the Bengali language would act as an editorial assistant and generate word suggestions of code-mixed input, detect contextual spelling errors and distinguish hilarious "Murad Takla" sentences with general sentences containing real-world errors. We design a spell checker that provides word suggestions for Romanized Bengali words, converts them into their native scripts, detects contextual spelling errors in a sentence, and detects Murad Takla sentence detection from codemixed Bengali-English text, using Avro Keyboard as a baseline model. Using word embedding models and neural models, we evaluated our system by creating a dataset comprising of Murad Takla sentences.
